

Robot Girl

well, well, I don't wanna dance with you robot child cause your moves are bit too snatchy well, well, I don't wanna kiss you and hold you tight, cause your hugs are much too hard but if you keep listening to that boppin' tune, it's true it brings out the prehistoric woman in you well, well, I don't wanna listen about this and that cause that talk is just a scheme well, well you run all day, but don't rest at night your live is on one screen but if you keep listening to that rockin' beat, it's true

it brings out the prehistoric woman in you it's not because you're young, you're that young no more I guess you ain't that footloose, you're trapped in a trapdoor your swiping makes me edgy, I'm frightend by your ice-cold eyes but if you keep listening to that boppin' tune it's true

it brings out the prehistoric woman in you well, well, I don't wanna dance with you robot chil'...
