

REBEL WITH A CAUSE

do you feel that strange tension

I guess something's gonna happen very soon

the clock will stand still there'll be no turning wheel our hearts will be burning

I'll start a new kind of living tonight too long I believed to lies too long I've closed my eyes some bills gonna be paid there gonna be some changes made

(bridge 2)

the weak will be strong the lame will stand up alone the helpless will help another the powerful've got that sh-sh-shudder
