

well I woke up this morning I wasn't there alone I thought I have to leave that place but I realized that I'm at home well it happens willy-nilly so I'll stop dilly-dally my heart says yes, my mind cries no!

go up or down but go, go, go the cat scratches at the door it opens and she runs in then she looks back, flips at the floor goes there where she had been

so please stop dilly-dally your mind says yes, your heart cries no!

some things are not that easy you ask what should I do if there's a choice be glad and don't get mad the final instance that is you

your mind says yes, your heart cries no!
