

Last Train

I´m sitting at the platform and watch trains leaving station cause I don´t have a ticket nor a destination
I´ve always been the kind of driver-type more than just a passenger who cares...

there was noone who told them noone who was worth listening to they hurry tough they´ve got no promise there´ll be a better place to go last chance to leave the train before it crashes if you´re ready to change it, let me know

...let it go
